

Drillinginfo Leads Business Donations for Amplify Austin 2014

Austin-based technology solutions company holds number one spot for the second time

AUSTIN, Texas – March 31, 2014 – Drillinginfo, the leading SaaS & data analytics company for energy exploration decision support, took the number one spot among Business Fundraisers in Amplify Austin 2014 for the second year running.

In March Austin-based Drillinginfo rallied a company-wide effort to participate in the 24-hour "festival of giving" that aims to help hundreds of nonprofits that are meeting critical needs. With over 400 participating non-profits, companies participating in Business Fundraisers encouraged employees to donate to the non-profit of their choice.

“As a company that was founded and continues to be headquartered in Austin, we felt it was our duty and privilege to give back to the organizations that do such a great job of supporting our city,” said Allen Gilmer, co-founder, chairman, and CEO of Drillinginfo. “Participating in Amplify Austin is a cause near and dear to my heart, and it makes me proud to see our employees giving so generously to local causes.”

After taking the top spot in 2013, Drillinginfo reaffirmed its commitment to the local community in 2014 by once again leading Business Fundraiser donations. 91 percent of Drillinginfo employees participated in 2014, giving a total of $46,245 to the non-profits of their choice, including Hospice Austin, YMCA of Austin, and Boys and Girls Clubs of Austin.

“We’re thrilled that Drillinginfo and other members of the Austin business community have joined forces with individual donors and their employees to amplify giving for Central Texas,” said Tom Spencer, executive director of I Live Here, I Give Here.
